

Tony Nolan is an evangelist and founder of TNT Ministries, based in Georgia. He is passionate Gospel communicator, whose heart beats, to see people saved, believing that "life is short, and everyone needs to be prepared for eternity." As a nationally, sought-after preacher, Tony's ministry transforms hundreds of thousands of people each year, through more than 100 local-church Harvest Day events, conferences, festivals, and concerts.

Tony spent several fruitful years, as the tour-pastor and evangelist for the Casting Crowns Lifesong Tour and Winter Jam Tour Spectacular. The tours stopped in more than 220 U.S. cities, resulting in 400,000 public professions of faith in Christ. Other high-profile events that have featured Tony's preaching, include Christian Family Day at Busch Stadium, in St. Louis, MO; Winter Jam; Xtreme Conferences; Creation Festivals; the Southern Baptist Convention; and Break Forth Canada--the largest equipping and renewal conference in North America.

Tony is the author of several books, including "Hurt Healer: Reaching Out to a Broken World" and "GASP! You Will Spend Forever Somewhere: How to Make Sure It's Heaven." He has also produced DVD and CD presentations, including, "What's the Deal With God?"; "LifeLift"; and "Spiritual 911."

Before becoming an evangelist, Tony was the College Students' and Singles' Pastor at First Baptist Church Woodstock, in Woodstock, Georgia. He holds a bachelor's degree in Biblical Studies from Criswell College in Dallas, Texas. Tony is currently serving as a teaching pastor for Freedom Church in Acworth, GA and studying for his Master's in Ministry at Richmond Graduate University. He and his family live in Georgia.
